

The Central Election Commission building, Astana

Field of Activity

Public institution

User

The independent collegiate organs created according to selective the legislation, organizing and providing preparation and elections of various level. When holding referenda the electoral commissions work as the referendum commissions. According to the electoral laws, the electoral commissions are independent and independent of public authorities, local government bodies and public associations, however in practice cases of intervention of officials of public authorities and local self-government in activities of the electoral commissions are permanent.

Task

To develop the project documentation and to execute installation of systems:

- Congress system
- System of simultaneous interpretation
- Video wall

Decision

In case of the solution of this task our company performed project works and installation систем simultaneous interpretation and congress of system (DCN), and as video wall (Orion)

Installer

GSI - Kazakhstan