

METRO Cash&Carry, Almaty

Field of Activity

Distribution network

User

"METRO" is trade division of the German company METRO Group – one of the world largest international trading companies. The METRO wholesale center offers various range of goods, delivered national and international suppliers.

Task

To perform hardware of the center being in the city Almaty, systems of the security fire alarm and fire extinguishing, it agrees concepts of creation of systems of safety on objects such.

Decision

According to tradition in all shopping centers METRO Group used equipment for security systems manufactured by German company Bosch.

The fire extinguishing system is executed by means of the Russian equipment "Bolid". For different premises of shop the different principles of action of a fire extinguishing system are used: in the server - gas, in electropanel board - powder, in a boiler room - aerosol.

Result

Thanks to an extensive experience in designing and installation specialists of the company made their work high-quality and in time executed the delivered tasks.

Installer

GSI - Kazakhstan